"Heredit"

So many men forgive themselves for sins that they commit. The blame they place upon the long-lost past; "Inherited," they say, when of remorse they get a fit. And on their sires the fault they lightly cast.

Excuses thus are hung upon the failures of the dead, And they're to blame for all the wrong we do. But I admire than man who puts the wrong upon his head, And not upon his past, and so do you. —Selected.

The worthy matron of Ocala Chapter, No. 29, O. E. S. requests the officers to meet at the hall Tuesday, Nov. 21st, 7 p. m., for memorial rehearsal.

Exhibits for Marion County Fair. Any exhibits ready for the Marion county fair had better be taken as early as possible to Mrs. B. T. Purdue on Fort King avenue, to avoid the rush at the fair grounds. Canned goods should be taken direct to the fair.

Mr. W. V. Knott, Mrs. Knott and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knott of Tampa, stopped in Ocala last night and had supper at the Ocala House dining rooms, on the way home to Tallahassee. Mr. Knott and our big sheriff were boys together, and their friendship endures.

Mrs. E. L. Carney left yesterday for Miami, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blalock, and will also attend the meeting of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

"The Gilded Cage" will be seen at the Temple tonight. It is practically an all-star cast, featuring Alice Brady, Arthur Ashley and Irving Cummings. This is a very interesting picture of a young, inexperienced queen who has a "fairy prince" arrives on the scene. Tomorrow Mary Pickford will appear in "Cinderella."
